“In Love With Learning” Read-a-Thon 2009

Dear Friend,

The ability to read and write effectively is a powerful tool that everyone, young or old, needs. Literacy issues affect 47% of Canadian adults.

I will be participating in the “In Love with Learning Read-A-Thon” during September of 2009. This event will support the Haldimand-Norfolk Literacy Council. This non-profit organization has been helping adult residents in Haldimand and Norfolk counties improve their reading, writing, and numeracy skills through one-to-one and classroom setting tutoring for 27 years. I want to support their mission and think the Read-a-Thon is an ideal way to help.

I am pledging to read ___ books during the four week Read-a-thon and would appreciate your support with a donation. Every dollar raised will be used to support the efforts and activities of the Haldimand-Norfolk Literacy Council.

Note: Donations of $20.00 or more will be given a tax receipt

Thank you for your help. Please visit the HNLC web site at www.hnliteracy.com to learn more about this organization and about other ways that you can volunteer and help improve literacy and learning in our community.

Come join us, as we celebrate the conclusion of our Read-a-Thon, on October 24th for our six hour “Read-In” at the Simcoe Mall or our new Haldimand Adult Learning Centre at 227 Queen Street, Dunnville and get out and read!

Thank you!

The Haldimand-Norfolk Literacy Council
